

ONE CENT -- LAST EDITION -- ONE CENT

WILSON FAILS IN POLISH RELIEF

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 17

Chicago, Tuesday, October 17, 1916

398

POLITICIANS NAMED AS BAR 'FIXERS'—MAYOR THOMPSON GRILLED

State's Att'y Springs Names of Politicians in Connection
With Levee Probe—Ald. De Priest Hit—Mayor
Quizzed on Saloon Question.

Mayor Thompson on the stand today in the application for warrants for Chief Healey tried valiantly to defend his police head and then quietly passed the buck on the restoration of saloon licenses to Healey and the mayor's private sec'y, Charles Fitzmorris.

After the mayor had finished his testimony Ass't State's Att'y Henry Berger introduced documents taken from the police chief's own private files to show that powerful politicians had influenced Healey to recommend restoration of revoked licenses.

Among the politicians whose names figured in the restoration of licenses were: Alderman Oscar De Priest, negro; Ald. Wm. J. Healy, Ald. Jas. H. Lawley, Ald. M. A. Michelson, Fred Lundin's man Friday, and Wm. Burkhardt, deputy com'r of public works and brother-in-law of the mayor, and City Collector Chas. J. Forsberg.

Thompson was the first witness